Order

A committee for Co-Curricular and Extra-Curricular Activities is hereby constituted with the primary objective of promoting the holistic development of students by organizing and overseeing a wide range of academic and non-academic activities. This committee aims to encourage student participation in sports, cultural, literary, and other co-curricular events both within and outside the institution. The committee will work to develop students' teamwork, leadership, and communication skills through active involvement in various events, create an inclusive environment for all students, and ensure their participation in inter-collegiate, state, and national-level competitions.

Additionally, the committee will foster engagement by organizing activities such as seminars, workshops, debates, academic competitions, sports events, cultural festivals, and social outreach programs. By providing these opportunities, the committee will help students identify their talents, boost their confidence, and contribute to their personal and professional growth.
